

Leadership 2013: What Every Nurse Leader Needs to Know

Martha Griffith Lavender, RN, MSN, DSN

Dr. Lavender has more than 35 years of experience in clinical nursing practice, nursing education, and organizational administration. She currently serves as 2013 Chairperson for the Alabama Board of Nursing, is President of MGL Consulting, Inc. and is a Visiting Professor at the School of Nursing University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB). In 2011, she retired as the Dean of Health Sciences at Gadsden State Community College. At Gadsden State, she was responsible for the administration of the Cherokee Campus in Centre, Alabama. In addition, she served as the academic officer for the Division of Health Sciences which is comprised of the following programs: registered nursing, practical nursing, nursing assistant, clinical laboratory technician, phlebotomy, emergency medical services, radiological technician, public safety communications, surgical operating room technician, and massage therapy. From 1982-2004, Dr. Lavender served as faculty member and academic administrator at Jacksonville State University (JSU). She began her career at JSU as a perinatal outreach educator and progressed in rank from Assistant Professor (1984) to full professor (1989). She was the Dean of the College of Nursing and Health Sciences for eight years (1996-2004).
